Agravic (9:00)  Wei Dai

Agravic is for Alto Saxophone and tape and dedicated to Xin Gao. It is written as a memorial to the Boston Marathon bombing victims of April 2013. Conceived as standing in an agravic position (absence of gravity) from outerspace, observing what was happening within 13 seconds of two explosions in Boston, the piece is stretched into an agravic status similar to slow motion filming in "bullet time."
