LLC Symposium: The Global Sixties

2018 marked the 50th anniversary of 1968, a year that signifies two decades of world-wide occurrences of protest, rebellion, and civil disobedience. This symposium explores how concerns in the sixties, in particular world peace and disarmament, the environment, multiculturalism, women’s rights and gender issues, capitalism among others, continue to shape social movements today.

March 21-22, 2019
Virginia Dare Room, UNCG Alumni House

For any questions or need of disability accommodations, please contact the organizer, Dr. Susanne Rinner at s_rinner@uncg.edu

Symposium sponsored by LLC, Kohier Fund, and the College of Arts & Sciences